President's Message

CREATING BUZZZZZZ....

It was exciting to feel the energy in the ballroom during our February breakfast meeting at the Junior League. In the beginning, the room was buzzing with happy networking conversations, friends greeting friends or new members and introducing guests. From my (unofficial) count, we had near 90 registered for the breakfast with 12 of those being guests. No wonder we created a buzz.

After breakfast the room was charged again when our amazing speakers, Dr. Kenneth Mattox and Mr. George Masi, took the podium. We were charmingly entertained and captivantly informed regarding the impressive work at Harris Health System and our own Ben Taub General Hospital. These two leaders in Houston medical services seemed so down-to-earth, knowledgeable and experienced as they answered our questions regarding what's ahead, challenges facing the industry and individual health care.

Providing adequate health care for all Houstonians is a complicated, partisan, bureaucratic issue but we have many reasons to feel proud of our Medical Center and those, such as our speakers, who lead the way.

Of course, if we're talking buzz...February in Houston brought lots of it! Did you watch the big game? Super Bowl 51 may be over, with the New England Patriots crowned champions over the Atlanta Falcons, but the cheering for Houston is still reverberating. From all reports, our city and host committee did an excellent job.

NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell went out of his way to thank our city when he said, "I don't believe that you could have a team of people who were better prepared, more excited, more enthusiastic, and frankly could not have done a better job. It was just an extraordinary effort, incredible effort. They set a new bar,"

Wow, we set a new bar. And not only the NFL, but fans and celebrities alike gave our city top marks. Doesn't that make you feel proud? Seems like a job very well done. Some of the interesting numbers from the visithouston.com website show that we had:

- 10,000 — Volunteers on hand to help execute the event.
- 140,000 — Out-of-town visitors.
- 1 million — People estimated to have attended some component of the Super Bowl experience over a 10-day period.
- 350 million — Net economic impact in dollars on Houston.
- 84,000 — Hotel rooms in the Houston area, up from around 44,000 in 2004, the last time Houston hosted the game.
- 4 million — Approximate amount going to nonprofits in the region through the NFL's Charitable Giving Program.
- 97,000 — Square footage of the new pedestrian promenade in front of the George R. Brown Convention Center that with Discovery Green is part of a broader district called Avenida Houston—now in place for residents to enjoy.

It's nice to take a break sometime from buzzing and enjoy a little peace and serenity, but let's gear it up again for the March 7th TPG breakfast when we all meet to enjoy fellow members, guests and our speaker, Lisa Trapani Shumate, Vice President & General Manager of Houston Public Media. See you then!

*Warmest wishes,
Lynda Broussard
TPG 2017 President*

MAD COMMITTEE

NEWS!

The Making a Difference Committee is thankful to all who have contributed to Angela House. We will continue with one more collection at the March breakfast meeting. Please see Monday Announcements for the list of specific items we are still looking for. We will have an assembly party soon after and then make arrangements with Sister Maureen at Angela House to bring the pampering kits and celebrate spring with the ladies there. Anyone interested in joining us at either gathering, please contact TRISH STRANGMEYER FELT at trishsphoto@yahoo.com

BARBARA STALEY and PAM LONGLEY attended the 'Bows Before Bros' KIPP Girls' Sleepover at KIPP Sharpstown College Prep. School on Friday evening, February 10 armed with Mardi Gras beads, hats, a costume and boas, as well as Valentine stickers and jewels. The girls were photographed in groups with their friends dressed up in the finery. Then they made picture frames out of card stock and decorated them with the stickers and jewels. They also had a sign-up sheet for the spring semester Girls' Leadership Club, which will get underway in March. In case you are wondering, Barbara and Pam did not spend the night there!
